CORAM : MR.JUSTICE S.K.KESHOTE

Date of decision: 15/02/2001

ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

#. The petitioner was detained as a bootlegger under the order of the District Magistrate, Porbandar dated 20.10.2000 and he is presently at Ahmedabad Central Prison, Ahmedabad.

#. Challenging this order manifold contentions are raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner but as this petition deserves to be allowed only on one contention it is not necessary to refer all those contentions, discuss and decide.

#. It is not in dispute that none of the respondents has filed reply to the Special Civil Application.

#. One of the contentions raised is that the copies of the statements of witnesses recorded under Section 161 of the Cr.P.C. in the criminal complaint which are made basis for detention of the petitioner were not supplied to him and as a result of which he has been deprived of his valuable right of making effective representation against the detention order as guaranteed under Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India. This fact stand uncontroverted as the reply to the Special Civil Application has not been filed and it has to be taken to be correct.

#. I have given my thoughtful consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

#. In the representation filed by the petitioner against the detention order, I find that this demand of the copies of the documents has been made by the petitioner. It is a clear case that despite of making demand of copies of the documents which are certainly vital and relevant to the matter the same were not supplied to the petitioner and the petitioner is deprived of his valuable right to make effective representation as guaranteed under Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India.

In the result, this petition succeeds and the same is allowed. The order of detention of the petitioner dated 20.10.2000 is quashed and set aside. The petitioner Rabari Vaja @Garadi Kisha Kodiater, the detenu, at present in Ahmedabad Central Prison, Ahmedabad, be set at liberty forthwith, if he is not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute. As the respondents fairly conceded the position, no order as to costs.
